

Guidelines

Graves

Graves in the Old Graveyard are in rows as shown in the plans. The graves are labelled 01, 02 etc. Row A graves are A01, A02, -- to A35.

Graves V1 to V6 are labelled similarly with the first grave in each row labelled V101 and V601 etc.

The Abbots graves, including some Bishops, are labelled ABB01 etc.

The Wegg-Prosser graves are labelled WP01 etc.

The graves in the Extension graveyard are labelled EXT_A01 etc.

Those in the New graveyard are labelled NC_

The graves in the New Monk's graveyard are labelled NMG_01 etc.

Deaths

The deceased are entered in a searchable PDF document.

Grave Name - As above - If * shown there is no headstone or plaque on grave.

Surname

Christian Name(s)

Age at death - d - days; w - weeks; m - months; 3.5 - 3 and a half years.

Town/Village in which deceased died

Date on which deceased was buried - Day, Month, Year

Please note that it is assumed that the date given in the Burial Register is the date on which the burial took place.

Other Info - Information given:

No HS - No Headstone on grave.

NGR - No grave is shown in Burial Register Book

NIR - Not in Burial Register Book

HS d. 4th - Date on which the deceased died

HS A 72 - Headstone gives different age at death

Com - Members of Monastic Community

Oblates - Belmont Abbey Oblate

Associates - Associates of Belmont Abbey

SOC - Sister of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul

SOM - Sister of Mercy

Ashes - After cremation the Ashes of the Deceased will be buried in grave or commemorated

Memorial - On some Headstones deceased may be commemorated but not buried in the grave.

May give information about state of graves and photographs, monks also attached to other monasteries.